- (d) 24 months, where the leave is required for the purpose of prosecuting studies certified to be in the public interest, provided the employee concerned has completed 3 years' continuous service on the date of expiry of leave of the kind due and admissible under these regulations.

(4) No leave salary is payable during the period of extraordinary leave.

(5) The authority competent to grant leave may treat retrospectively, the periods of absence without leave as extraordinary leave.

9. Special Disability Leave.—(1) Subject to the conditions hereinafter specified the Commission may grant special disability leave to any of its employees who is disabled by injury intentionally inflicted or caused in, or in consequence of, the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position.

(2) Such leave shall not be granted unless the disability has manifested itself within three months of the occurrence to which it is attributed, and the person disabled acted with due promptitude in bringing it to the notice of his immediate superior. But the Commission, if it is satisfied as to the cause of the disability, may permit such leave to be granted in cases where the disability has manifested itself more than three months after the occurrence of its cause.

(3) The period of leave granted shall be such as is certified by the medical attendant approved by the Commission to be necessary. It shall not be extended except on the certificate of an authority specified by the Commission and shall in no case exceed 24 months.

(4) Such leave may be combined with leave of any other kind.

(5) Such leave may be granted more than once if the disability is aggravated or reproduced in similar circumstances at a later date, but not more than 24 months of such leave shall be granted in consequence of any one disability.

(6) Such leave shall be counted as duty in calculating service and shall not be debited against leave account.

(7) Leave salary during such leave shall be equal:—

- (a) for the first four months of such leave, including the period of such leave as granted under sub-regulation (5), to the leave salary as mentioned in sub-regulation (1) or sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 as the case may be; and
- (b) for the remaining period of such leave, to the leave salary as admissible to him during half pay leave.

(8) In the case of an employee to whom the Workmen's Compensation Act 1923 (8 of 1923) applies, the amount of leave salary payable under this regulation shall be reduced by the amount of compensation payable under section 4(1)(d) of the said Act.

(9) The provisions of this regulation shall apply to every employee of the Commission disabled in consequence of service with a military force, if he is discharged unfit for further military service, but is not completely and permanently incapacitated for further service under the Commission and to every employee of Commission not so discharged who suffers a disability which is certified by the medical authority specified by the Commission to be directly attributable to his service with a military force; but in either case, any period of leave granted to such an employee under military rules in respect of that disability shall be reckoned as leave granted under this regulation for the purpose of calculating the period admissible.

10. The Commission may extend the application of the provisions of regulation 9 to any of its employees, whether permanent or temporary, who is disabled by injury accidentally incurred in or in consequence of, the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position, or by illness incurred in the performance of any particular duty which has the effect of increasing his disability to illness or injury beyond the ordinary risk attaching to the post which he holds. Such extension shall be subject to the following further conditions, namely:—

- (i) that the disability, if due to disease, must be certified by the medical attendant approved by the Commission to be directly due to the performance of the particular duty; and
- (ii) that, if the employee has contracted such disability during service otherwise than with a military force, it must be, in the opinion of the Commission exceptional in character; and
- (iii) that the period of absence recommended by medical attendant approved by the Commission may be covered in part, by leave under this regulation and in part by other leave, and that the amount of special disability leave granted on average pay may be less than four months.

11. Maternity Leave.—(1) Maternity leave may be granted to a female employee of the Commission on full pay for a total period not exceeding three months at a time, subject to the condition that this leave shall not extend beyond six weeks from the date of actual confinement. Such leave shall not exceed 9 months during the entire period of an employee's service and shall not be debited to the leave account. Such leave may be combined with leave of any other kind, but other leave applied for in continuation of maternity leave may be granted only if such leave applied for is supported by a certificate from a registered medical practitioner or any medical authority specified by the Commission.

(2) Maternity leave may also be granted to a female employee of the Commission in cases of miscarriage including abortion, subject to the condition that the leave applied for does not exceed six weeks and the application for such leave is supported by a certificate from any medical authority approved by the Commission.

12. Leave not due.—(1) Leave not due at the rate of half-pay may be granted for a period not exceeding 360 days during the entire period of service of an employee of the Commission. Out of this leave, not more than 90 days at a time and 180 days in all, may be sanctioned otherwise than on medical certificate. This leave will be debited against the half-pay leave which the employee earns subsequently.

(2) Leave not due shall be granted only if no other kind of leave is due to the employee and the authority sanctioning the leave is satisfied that there is a reasonable prospect of the employee returning to duty on the expiry of leave and earning the required amount of half-pay leave to be set off against the leave sanctioned.

NOTE.—1. The concession of granting leave not due shall be limited only to those employees who have completed a minimum service of three years.

NOTE.—2. Where an employee who has been granted leave not due under this regulation applied for permission to retire voluntarily, the leave not due shall, if the permission is granted, be cancelled.

13. Authority competent to sanction leave.—The Commission may delegate its powers to sanction various kinds of leave, other than special disability leave, to any of its officers.

14. Maximum period of absence from Duty.—(1) No employee of the Commission shall be granted leave of any kind for a continuous period exceeding three years.

(2) Where an employee does not resume duty after remaining on leave for a continuous period of three years, or where an employee after the expiry of his leave remains absent from duty, otherwise than on foreign service or on account of suspension, for any period which together with the period of the leave granted to him exceeds three years, he shall, unless the Commission in view of the exceptional circumstances of the case otherwise determine, be deemed to have resigned and shall accordingly cease to be in Commission's employment.

15. Leave Salary.—(1) Except as provided in sub-regulation (2), an employee on earned leave shall be entitled to leave salary equal to the average monthly pay earned during the ten complete months immediately preceding the month in which the leave commences or the substantive pay to which the employee is entitled immediately before the commencement of the leave whichever is higher.

(2) An employee who proceeds on earned leave from a post the maximum pay of which does not exceed Rs. 110 per mensem, shall be entitled to leave salary equal to the pay drawn by him immediately before proceeding on leave.

(3) An employee on half pay leave or leave not due shall be entitled to leave salary equal to half the amount specified in sub-regulation (1) of sub-regulation (2), as the case may be, subject to a maximum of Rs. 750 per mensem:

Provided that this limit shall not apply if the leave is on medical certificate or for pursuing an approved course of study otherwise than on study leave terms.

(4) An employee on commuted leave shall be entitled to leave salary equal to the amount admissible under sub-regulation (1) or sub-regulation (2), as the case may be.

(5) An employee on extraordinary leave shall not be entitled to any leave salary.

NOTE.—In respect of any period spent on foreign service out of India, the pay which the employee would have drawn if on duty in India but for foreign service out of India shall be substituted for the pay actually drawn while calculating average pay.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this regulation 'substantive pay' means the substantive pay of the permanent post which the employee holds substantively or on which he holds a lien or would hold a lien, had the lien not been suspended.

Provided that in the case of a temporary employee who has put in continuous service of not less than 3 years the pay admissible in the post in which he was initially appointed shall be deemed to be the substantive pay:

Provided further that the leave salary of an employee who is in permanent employment or has put in continuous service for not less than three years under the Commission and who has been continuously officiating in another post for more than three years at the time he proceeds on leave shall be calculated as if he were the substantive holder of the post in which he was so officiating or in which he would have so officiated but for his officiating appointment in the equivalent or a higher post.

NOTE.—The three years limit shall include:—

- (a) all periods of leave during which the employee would have officiated in the post but for proceeding on such leave; and
- (b) all periods of officiating service rendered in an equivalent or a still higher post but for appointment to which he would have officiated in that post.

16. Recall from leave.—The authority competent to sanction leave shall have the discretion to recall an employee to duty before the expiry of his leave in the exigencies of the Commission's work. If an employee is out of headquarters at the time of recall and the return to duty is compulsory he shall be treated as on duty from the date he starts for the station to which he is ordered to report, but until he joins his post he shall continue to get leave salary only.

17. Combination of leave.—Except as otherwise provided in these regulations any kind of leave under these regulations may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave.

18. Refusal of Earned Leave.—All leave to the credit of an employee will lapse on the date on which he must compulsorily retire and no leave shall be granted to him beyond this date. However, if any employee had formally applied for leave preparatory to retirement in time and been denied the leave in whole or in part, on account of exigencies of the Commission's work, the earned leave which was due to him pending retirement, and which was formally denied may be granted to him, even though it extends to a date beyond the date on which he must compulsorily retire.

19. Grant of leave to an employee after retirement.—If the services of any employee of the Commission have been extended in the interest of the Commission beyond the date of his compulsory retirement, he may be granted leave as under:—

- (a) During the extended service he may be granted earned leave, earned during such extension at the rate of 1/11th of the period spent on duty and to the extent admissible and earned leave which could have been granted to him under the regulation 18, had he retired on the date of compulsory retirement. The total period of leave which he may accumulate and take on each occasion shall not exceed 120 days.
- (b) After the expiry of the period of extension he may be granted the earned leave which would have been granted to him had he retired on the date of compulsory retirement, reduced by the amount of such leave availed of during the period of extension together with any leave earned during the period of extension as had been formally applied for as preparatory to final cessation of his duties during that period and refused to him on account of the exigencies of the Commission's work, during such extended service.

20. Terminal leave.—(1) Only earned leave to the extent admissible at a time to an employee of the Commission can be granted as terminal leave at the time of his quitting service at the discretion of the competent authority on the termination of service on account of retrenchment, or abolition of post or due to completion of the terms of employment or resignation for reasons of ill-health or for reasons beyond his control.

(2) An employee of the Commission who resigns his post of his own volition, shall be granted terminal leave for a period not exceeding half the amount of earned leave admissible to him at a time. The Commission may, however, refuse the grant of terminal leave in the case of persons dismissed or removed from service or to persons employed on a contract basis for a period not exceeding one year.

21. Overstayal of Leave.—An employee of the Commission who remains absent at the end of his leave, is not entitled to leave salary, unless the period of such overstayal is regularised by sanctioning admissible leave by the competent authority. If such competent authority is not satisfied with the reasons for overstayal, it would be open to him to treat the period as leave without pay and also treat the overstayal as breach of discipline. The period of overstayal of leave shall be treated as half pay leave to the extent such leave is due and the rest as extraordinary leave. The employee shall not be entitled to leave salary during such overstayal of leave not covered by extension of leave by the competent authority.

22. General.—No leave shall be claimed as a matter of right and the authority competent to sanction leave shall have the discretion to revoke or refuse leave at any time in the exigencies of the Commission's work.

23. Casual Leave.—The Commission may issue separate administrative instructions from time to time governing the grant of casual leave to its employees.

24. Resumption of Duty.—Employees of the Commission who have been sanctioned leave on medical grounds may not be allowed to resume duties without the production of a certificate of fitness from a medical authority recognised by the Commission.

25. Leave to honorary Employees.—Every whole time honorary employee of the Commission appointed for a period of not less than six months shall be entitled to leave as admissible to temporary employees of the Commission. For the purpose of determining the leave salary admissible to such honorary employee during his leave the honorarium drawn by him shall be treated as pay.

26. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these Regulations, it shall be referred to the Commission whose decision thereon shall be final.

27. Saving.—Nothing in these Regulations shall affect any leave earned by an employee before the commencement of these Regulations and standing to his credit immediately before such commencement and all such leave shall be carried forward to the leave account of the employee.
